Scientific Officer,
Research Division,
National Science Foundation.

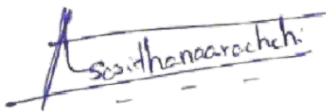

Dear Sir,

Gratitude for conducting a Workshop for hackX National Hackathon Series 2025

On behalf of the hackX National Hackathon Series Organizing Committee and the Industrial Management Science Students' Association, please accept our sincere appreciation for your exceptional contribution as a resource person for the hackX workshop series.

Your expertise in how Tech-D and start-up grant opportunities can turn research into real-world success on 30th October 2025 was highly impactful and incredibly well-received by our participants. We deeply appreciate your professionalism and commitment to sharing your valuable knowledge, which significantly elevated the educational experience of our event.

Thank you once again for your time and dedication. We hope to collaborate with you on future hackX events.
